THE BEACH IS NOW ALL A-STIR.

The World's Records That Have Been Made On The Daytona Beach.

OCEAN SIDE IS NOW ANIMATED.

Already during the winter season a few swimmers are left unoccupied it is the beach resorters. Only the robust can face a plunge into the surf at this time, but fishing is not nearly so good as it is in the summer and fall, and therefore the attraction is nothing great in the winter as it is in the summer. The fact that it is less than a month now till the greatest automobile races in the history of the world will take place on this celebrated beach has inspired numbers of people to "get down to the ground floor," and perhaps accounts for the activities now there.

Interest in outings, not only on the beach but in Daytona, and for hotel accommodations, are soaring in, and if it does not do that numbers of those now will be forced to forego the pleasure of the races because of the inability of business men to be absent during that period would without exception never before known in the history.

Tourists are finding their stay for the cool and bracing months who are now sojourning elsewhere will be showing up on Dixie and the ocean side will now become as gay as the gayest.

It is of interest to recall the several world's records made on the Daytona beach. It runs the full gamut, which evidence indisputable that no other straightaway course in all the world, whether ocean beach or artificially made speedway, is anywhere near its equal.

Schwarzer: 10 2-5 sec., Marriott, Stanley.

Mile: 34 1-5 sec., Marriott, Stanley.

Mile: 35 4-5 sec., Dereligeri, Darracq.

2 miles: 2 min. 24 sec., Bonnecy, Darracq.

5 miles: 6 min. 13 sec., McDonald, Locomobile.

10 miles: 12 min. 36 1-5 sec., Burman, Benault.

It is confidently believed that some of these world records will be lowered at the coming races, and monster machines of high power are to compete for the honor of clearing those wonderful marks.

INNOCENTS RESTORED.

[By United Press.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A bill passed by the Senate providing for the issue of an army commission to restore the names of gallant former members of Roosevelt's battalions who were dishonorably discharged by the Brownsville incident, was recommended favorably by the House Committee on Military Affairs today.

A FAMOUS CASE IS ENDING.

Mrs. Benjamin Teal On Trial For Subornation Of Perjury In Gould Case.

ARE SUMMING UP THE EVIDENCE.

[By United Press.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The State today rested in the case of Mrs Benjamin Teal, on trial for subornation of perjury growing out of the action of Mrs. Frank Gould for divorce against her husband. Col. Hare, Mrs Teal's attorney, moved for a dismissal of the indictment on the ground that the alleged crime was committed before Mrs. Gould and her husband had framed the issues upon which the case was tried. Later the judge overruled the motion.

Harry Housely, the detective who secured the evidence against Gould, was called to the stand and questioned regarding Miss Bessie Devoe, to whom Mrs. Teal rented her apartments at $250 a month.

There was plainly an attempt made to connect the name of Miss Devoe and Miss Gould, but the Judge refused to permit it. Col Hare hastily retreated Housely, and stated that he would rest on the State's evidence.

A recess was taken when the summing up began this afternoon. The case will go to the jury tonight.

VOTING IS HEAVY.

With each count in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest the vote grows larger, showing that the interest grows greater each day as the finish comes in sight. Only a little over a month more and two beautiful instruments will be given away and many valuable due bill's will be scattered over Daytona and vicinity.

In Daytona the High School is making a remarkable run, getting in the last count a vote of over 70,000. Some people wonder where the votes come from. They come from everywhere. Every ballot box is partly filled with votes for the High School, and they don't come in big numbers either. Most of them come in twos and fours.

The Elks had even a larger vote than the High School, and made a gain on the Eastern Star of nearly 6,000.

Outside of Daytona the Kingston School made a nice gain on the Wilmam Opera House but the rest of the votes were very light. At present the interest in the contest seems to center in Daytona.

When getting votes at the different stores be careful to see that they are carefully punched.

John Pollitt has resigned his position with The Globe, and is looking for another place. Mr. Pollitt had been with The Globe since 1901.

IMPUDENT NEGRO BOY.

Last night at the "Merry-Go-Round" a big lubberly negro boy kept jumping off and on the "pooler" as the crowds went round. The man in charge is reported to have requested him a time or two to stop it and as the boy persisted the man lashed him with a whip. The boy then ran to one side and gathered up a piece of wood to throw at the man but leg-slanders made an effort to take the boy in charge and he took to his heels several fellows in pursuit and he was chased up street some distance.

It has been the observation of the writer that where the "colored" young man is known as such he generally gets promptes a rule and it is well not to obtain-rate the color lines entirely. If the aberrant who has insisted that the "colored" boy is most in evidence tonight at the merry-go-round that he was the first night will continue to make a note he will observe that by Saturday night the colored element is even more in the ascendent.

The negro young people would command more respect were they satisfied to enjoy such harmless ardent attempting to pose so conspicuously in the limelight.

HOLLY HILL

HOLLY HILL, Feb. 24.—Sunday Mrs F. A. Mann returned to Seabreeze after spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Meikel.

Last Saturday a son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lone Carr.

Miss Mann went to St. Augustine Saturday.

Wednesday Mrs. Davenport, her son and daughter and Mrs. Kaylor spent the day at Port Orange.

Mrs. Kline and sister Miss Rosenthal, were in Seabreeze Wednesday calling on friends at the Colonnades Hotel.

Amongst our visitors this week were Dr. Rev. A. J. Wilder of Daytona and the Misses Ware and Mathews from Scarboro.

Mrs. Chas. Wetherell, who has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia, is now recovering.

Wm. Wetherell, Jr., has sent very fine celery on his lot, adjoining the river road, that has attracted much attention from passers-by. All who have tried it pronounce it particularly good, as it has that rich, nutty flavor so desirable in celery.

A. B. Wilkinson came up from Hawks Park today and will return home tomorrow, accompanied by Mrs Wilkinson, who has been for about a week with her sister, Mrs. C. F. Wetherell.

Editor Daily News:

I have now been several weeks in Daytona working in the interest of the International Automobile League and have been successful in interesting many individual automobile owners to join this League. I shall leave Daytona the latter part of this week for Miami to do similar work there as the League has many members wintering at that point.

I have been informed that Mr. Barnes, who was the promoter of the Automobile Show held at the Grand Central Palace, New York City, has been knocking the I. A. L. and stating that the League has been out of money dollars. There is positively no truth in any of his statements and his object evidently is to keep up the high prices of automobiles and accessories. I am acquainted with Mr Barnes so he can not deceive me. Since the Show held at the Grand Central Palace in New York City

I expect to return here for the winter's races as the International Automobile League is bringing their 10,000 members to come to the Daytona races.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Representative Tawney today introduced a special rule in the House to consider the adoption of an amendment to the civil bill cutting off all appropriations for any commissions, councils or boards created by the President. The rule also provides that no clerks shall be detailed from government departments for duty with such boards. The rule was adopted by a vote of 140 to 69 and so I now goes to the House as a committee of the whole.

Plenty of Amusement Now.

Daytona still seems to be getting its full share of amusements, and from the way such seems to be getting a good amount of business, the conclusion must be drawn that the people are there hungry. The King & Tucker opera last night drew a fair crowd in spite of bad weather as did the Alice Monroe Show on Monday night.

Miss Frances Searls, in a dramatic picture, is on at the Crystal, while at the Casino a feature bill, Mondon and Sheldon, in a high class musical act is making a hit.

The Maryland Amusement Company is about for a week closing in Beach street, between Magnolia and Orange streets, for the benefit of the Daytona Social, and with but a large street carnival, what shows they have are good and clean and worth the money.

Next week the Park Dramatic Company, a favorite here, will show under canvas on the Volusia avenue lot.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wesley, of Patterson, N. J., are spending a few days in Ormond. They are on their bridal tour and will go from here to Sanford to visit friends, then to Jacksonville, leaving there on the Clyde Line, arriving home about March 6th. Mr. Bracker is one of the most successful market gardeners in the vicinity of New York.

Mr. J. White Belcher and Miss Linda Ware are spending a few days at Palm Beach.

A. Mitchell who has been here a few weeks, returned home on Friday to Newark, N. J. Mr. Mitchell is a large furniture manufacturer of that place.

G. A. Carlisle is bringing down 500 boxes of oranges per week from Wood Grove for L. Hart.

Ormond celebrated the 22nd by a boat race in the morning, eleven boats entering. There were four prizes: 1st $75, 2nd, a handful gasoline, 3rd $5, 4th, $3. Committee: Wendell Hopkins and Carroll Cuzner. Six entries: Winners: Wetherbee, Kimball, Carleton and Gidley. Ball game in the afternoon, and a ball at the Casino in the evening.

Miss Emma Wetherbee has been quite ill, but is now much better, we are glad to hear.

The entire country produced 30,100,000 gallons of "turp" and 4,032,000 barrels of rosin in 1908. Of this amount Florida furnished more than 17,000,000 gallons of turpentine and nearly 2,000,000 barrels of rosin.

Georgia was second in the production of naval stores with a record of more than 10,000,000 gallons turpentine and 1,000,000 barrels of rosin. The entire output of turpentine last year is valued at $14,000,000, and the rosin amounted to $10,000,000

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Suffragettes of title and highest social position were today sentenced to terms of one to ten months in jail for demonstrations last night when an army of suffragettes tried to force an interview with Premier Asquith.

Among those sentenced were Lady Constantine, Litton sisters, the daughters of Lord Litton, former viceroy of India; Mrs. Pethick Lawrence and Daisy Solomon, the daughter of the ex-premier of South Africa, and others of equal rank. Thirty suffragettes were arraigned in court and refused to give bond for good behavior, preferring prison sentences instead.

NASHVILLE, Feb. 25.—Showing fight when pressed too closely by the prosecution Col. Duncan Cooper underwent a siege on the witness stand today at the hands of the prosecutors.

The defense announced that it will prove that Senator Carmack went armed for 24 hours before he was killed.

It developed that the pistol that Carmack carried was given him by Major W. C. Voitrou, a prominent local attorney. Sunday night before the killing.

Major Voitrou will be called to explain why he gave Carmack the revolver.

Cooper denied he had given action to the statement published in the Nashville A. citizen of November 10, the day of the killing, purporting to give his side of the killing.

The rule was adopted by a vote of 140 to 60 and an I now goes to the House as a committee of the whole.

Plenty of Amusement Now.

Daytona still seems to be getting its full share of amusements, and from the way each seems to be getting a good amount of business, the conclusion must be drawn that the people are show hungry. The King & Tucker circus last Friday drew fair crowds in the face of bad weather as did the Allen Minstrel Show on Monday night.

Miss Frances Swartz, is a dramatic playlet, is on at the Crystal, while at the 'Gator a feature bill, Monohan and Sheehan, in a high-class musical act is making a hit.

The Maryland Amusement Company is here for a week, showing on Beach street, between Magnolia and Orange avenues, for the benefit of the Daytona band, and while not a large street carnival, what shows they have are good and clean and worth the money.

Next week the Park Dramatic Company, a favorite here, will show under canvas on the Volusia avenue lot.

ORMOND

ORMOND, Feb. 24.—Mr. and Mrs. John Bender, of Patterson, N. J., are spending a few days in Ormond. Committee: Wardwell, Hopkins and Carnell. Course: Six miles. Winners: Wetherbee, Kimball, Carleton and Colby. Ball game in the afternoon, and a ball at the Casino in the evening.

Miss Emma Wetherbee has been quite ill, but is now much better, we are glad to hear.

LEFT WITH REGRET.

George T. Hooley, of the North Western Life Insurance Co., of Milwaukee, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Seaman for the past week, left Wednesday for Dunnedin, where he owns a fine orange grove of 240 or more acres. He will spend two or three weeks at Dunnedin, then visit Cuba, possibly stopping at Daytona again on his way North. Mr. Hooley, who is an old friend of Mr. Seaman's, came here with the intention of remaining only two or three days, but was so pleased with the place that he expressed regret that his plans prevented him from spending his entire vacation here. Mr. Hooley has the distinguished honor of being a thirty-third degree Mason.

Oscela Tribe No 21, Imp O R M., held a special meeting Wednesday night at which Fred Caldwell received the adoption degree, and several committees reported favorably on the applications of ten or a dozen pale faces, who were elected to take their degrees at the next regular meeting, the first Wednesday in March.

English Suffragettes Ask For Interview And Land In Prison Instead.

PREFER PRISON TO INJUSTICE.

[By United Press.]

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Suffragettes of title and highest social position were today sentenced to terms of one to ten months in jail for demonstrations last night when an army of suffragettes tried to force an interview with Premier Asquith.

Among those sentenced were Lady Constantine, Litton sisters, the daughters of Lord Litton, former viceroy of India; Mrs. Pethick Lawrence and Daisy Solomon, the daughter of the ex-premier of South Africa, and others of equal rank. Thirty suffragettes were arraigned in court and refused to give bond for good behavior, preferring prison sentences instead.

CARMACK'S WEAPONS.

(By United Press.)

NASHVILLE, Feb. 25.—Showing fight when pressed too closely by the prosecution Col. Duncan Cooper underwent a siege on the witness stand today at the hands of the prosecutors.

The defense announced that it will prove that Senator Carmack went armed for 24 hours before he was killed.

It developed that the pistol that Carmack carried was given him by Major W. C. Voitress, a prominent local attorney Sunday night before the killing.

Major Voitress will be called to explain why he gave Carmack the revolver.

Cooper denied he had given saction to the statement published in the Nashville American of November 10, the day of the killing, purporting to give his side of the killing.

Query.

EDITOR DAILY NEWS:

The question was asked by a tourist why the free postal delivery was not established at Daytona. The answer given was because the numbering of the streets was needed. If this one of the most important reasons let us hasten the matter and experience the comforts of free postal service.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Woodward, Mr. Woodward's mother, Mrs. E. W. Woodward, are entertaining a house party, including Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hoey, of West Chester, Pa.; Miss Mary Eckel, of Toledo, Ohio; Col. and Mrs. E. E. Dudley, of Detroit, Mich.; and Mr. and Mrs. Will Sharpless, of West Chester, Pa., who came in last night from Miami. Also Z. T. Fassett, of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Hoey is a brother of Mrs. Woodward, Jr., and Mr. Fassett is a nephew. The hostess and friends are having a most delightful season at the hospitable home.

J. Ralph Wilson spent yesterday at the Breakers, looking after the additional guests.

A delightfully informal dance was given at the Princess Issena Tuesday evening. Mrs. Sturgis's music and refreshments were fine.

Postmaster Britton has received a letter from his brother stating that Mrs. Britton, for quite a while, is very much worse.

A. S. Richardson is enjoying a visit from his brother, Rev. Richardson, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., who is here with his private secretary.

Dr. Fisher and wife, of Chicago, Ill., arrived from the north yesterday and are guests of the Princess Issena.

The bath house did a running business yesterday. The beach was peopled with bathers all day, and the surf was said to be unusually fine.

S. F. Merrifield, contractor and builder of concrete and stone work, has the contract to build Miss Kelley's concrete cottages on the beach on East street and Flamingo avenue, which are to be ready soon, it is said.

Remember that never was the time when there was more substantial proof of building than at the particular present.

At Eau Pa., we had a regular a trip to the Everglades yesterday. The pleasant party of friends were as follows: A. S. Richardson, wife and two daughters, Misses Minnie and Amelia, Mr. and Mrs. Silver, Miss Alice, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson.

Most Northern Canada.

Of the possibilities of extreme northern Canada a traveler writes: "The country that one passes through from Athabasca Landing down to the Saskatchewan river is full of vegetation and wild life to an extent, one would say, unknown in all the middle latitudes at the different points that I passed I saw wheat and barley growing, potatoes, cattle, horses, carrots and every kind of vegetable that one grows in one's own garden at home. The country is thickly timbered near the banks of the river, and there are few places in which you do not find large patches of prairie. You pass by a great carload of natural gas, and oil is coming out for miles along the river bank."

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 26.—Miss Bessie, of Atlanta, is a recent arrival, remaining indefinitely at the Ormond Beach Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Wright's mother from Indiana arrived from the north yesterday, and have taken apartments at the Ormond.

Mr. Hoover and son, Charles Hoover, of St. Louis, who are winter guests at Bell Crest, have had relatives from a recent visit to Miami, and were very much pleased with their trip. Back to Bell Crest again.

George W. Bristol and wife, of Miami, and A. J. Cooper and wife, of Hamilton, O., are sojourning at the Williamson.

Walter Brown, Sandy, who is spending the winter with his parents in one of the fashionable cottages, had a narrow escape from fire last week, and divided a portion of his garments with Fannie and Sadie Ellen Brown, of Daytona.

Miss Edna Griggs is visiting friends at Daytona this week.

Mrs. Kinsley, who has been visiting with Mrs. C. P. Lord and other friends at Ormond and Daytona Beach, leaves today for her home in Indianapolis, Ind., after returning to Jacksonville to meet Mrs. Lord.

P. G. Rogers is having a water front built on the premises. A fine location for a cottage at the Beach.

Mrs. H. D. Lord, who has been a recent guest at the Ormond, with Mrs. Kate Wallace, Ind., H. Stone and wife, Miss Ruth Stone, Ind., Mrs. S. Beach, Miss Emma Beach, Chicago, Mrs. J. Dunham, N. Y.

Room accommodations are at present at a premium at the Ormond, and it is hard to meet the demands of the numerous guests who have been coming to the Beach this winter.

Mrs. E. E. Dudley, who has been visiting George, who is ill with pneumonia, at Miami, left yesterday for the latter place, to assist in the nursing that has been required. It is hoped favorable developments will be made before long.

Mrs. Dudley, who has been visiting Mrs. Hoey at the Ormond, left Monday for Miami to be with her son, George, who is ill with pneumonia.

Wasn't a Beauty.

"Have I ever told you further regarding Uncle Peter's traveling car Bessie? Its the most homely thing you ever saw. I don't know what was looked into when it was turned, but I guess you're right—Buried a Skunk.

Reasonable Enough.

"What's your objection to the farm, sister?"

"The land appears to be unsure."

"But that's owing to the heavy crops."—Washington Herald.

SEABREEZE Feb. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Woodward and Mr. Woodward's mother, Mrs. B. W. Woodward, are entertaining a house party, as follows: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Huey, of West Chester, Pa. Miss Mary Eckel, of Toledo, Ohio, Col. and Mrs. E. E. Dodge, of Denver, Col., and Mr. and Mrs. Will Sharpless, of West Chester, Pa., who came up last night from Miami. Also F. T. Faxton, of Kansas City, Mo. Mr. Huey is a brother of Mrs. Woodward, Sr., and Mr. Faxton is a nephew. The family and friends are having a most delightful season at this hospitable home.

J. Ralph Wilcox spent yesterday at his Tomoka home budding fruit trees and otherwise looking after his wildwood estate.

A delightfully informal dance was enjoyed at the Princess Issena Tuesday evening. Mrs. Spangler's music lent inspiration to the hour.

Postmaster Britton has received a letter from his brother saying that Mrs. Britton has again relapsed and was quite sick.

S. McLanahan is enjoying a visit from his elder brother, King McLanahan, of Hollidaysburg, Pa., who is here with his private secretary.

Dr. Fuller and wife, of Chicago, Ill., arrived from the north yesterday and are guests at Miss Russell's.

The bath houses did a rushing business yesterday. The beach was peopled with bathers all day, and the surf was said to be unusually fine.

B. F. Martindale, contractor and builder of concrete and stone work, has the contract to build Miss Kelley's six concrete cottages on her block on Earl street and Pinewood avenue, which are to be ready next season.

Seabreeze has never seen the time when there was more substantial promise of building than at this particular time.

An Erie, Pa., crowd enjoyed a trip to the Tomoka yesterday. The pleasant party of friends were as follows: Admiral Brooks, wife and two daughters, Misses Mamie and Amelia, Mr. and Mrs. Orth, Miss Allen, and Mr. and Mrs. Selden.

Most Northern Canada.

Of the possibilities of extreme northern Canada a traveler writes: "The country that one passes through from Athabasca Landing down to the Arctic Red river is full of vegetation and will, in my opinion, one day be settled. In all the mission gardens at the different posts that I passed I saw wheat and barley growing, potatoes, lettuces, turnips, carrots and every kind of vegetable that one grows in one's own garden at home. The country is thickly timbered near the banks of the river, and there are few places in which you do not find large patches of prairie. You pass by a great outrush of natural gas, and oil is oozing out for miles along the river bank."

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 25.—Miss Snow, of Atlanta, is a recent arrival, pleasantly located at the Daytona Beach Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Weyler and Mrs. Weyler's mother from Indiana arrived from the south yesterday, and have found pleasant accommodations at Surf Crest.

Mr. Youree and son, Charles Youree, of St. Louis, who are season guests at Surf Crest have just returned from a week's visit to Miami, and were very much pleased to get back to this section of the East Coast again.

George W. Bristol and wife, of Mason, Ill., and A. J. Coster and wife of Hinckley, Ill., are sojourning at the White House.

Master Elmer Smith, who is spending the season with his parents in one of the Bleekman cottages, had a birthday party one day this week, and invited in a number of his grown up friends, who saw to it that Elmer had a good time.

Miss Grace Griggs is visiting friends at Frances this week.

Mrs. Kitchell who has been visiting with Mrs. C. P. Lund and other friends, at Seabreeze and Daytona Beach, leaves Friday for Ponce Park, where she will visit with friends before returning to her home at Miami.

P. H. Ridgeway is having a water tower built on his premises. A Budgen is doing the work.

Yesterday's arrivals at the Seaside Inn were: Mrs. R. D. Lutz, Miss Lutz, Miss Riffle, Wabash, Ind.; H. Cohee and wife, Cobe Mill, N. Y.; Mrs. N. Boedher, Miss Emelie Borker, Chicago; Mrs. I. Benedict, Omaha, Neb.

Room accommodations are at premium now, and the peninsula hotels are put to to meet the demands of the daily arrivals from north and south.

E. E. Johnson's big garage, which has been in course of construction all winter, makes a good appearance now that the iron roofing has been placed. It has ample accommodations, and will be ready for use during the races.

The members of the Epworth League will give a social at the parsonage Friday evening, February 26, to which all are cordially invited.

Wasn't a Beauty.

"The land appears to be sunken."

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever spanned a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of waves-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls fly by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with dusk and cool and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican perch a fat sailfish, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load be snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their bumpers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with cliek draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty at Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more general and universal affection and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from that of another, so one another do the our homes differ in outward appearance and attractive beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of stiffingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most unlovable, the most prosaic-type natural setting of all the cities of South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And so for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite—which rise between the eastern and western sections are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some enthusiastic pilot reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Wherever one's shortcomings and however indifferent to our callous one may be to many things, the acute sensation of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "quarter" there is a fussy squirrel to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gaze into the treat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In our yard trees of variegated hues predominate, another has a petticoat for the poinsettia and the premises are alluring; another is hidden in a jungle of fall cane.

The birds fill in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, those citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity put here. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; It's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

James Barrett, of South Palmetto avenue, who broke his leg Christmas Day, is having a bedroom constructed, being still confined to his bed. He was up a few days about two weeks ago, but probably took cold and his leg swelled so that he was obliged to go back to bed.

The Fire.

This is how a writer of the prize verse "own as Edna Maria Shrigley" describes a would be witness the runaway ballad item.

"Did any one hasten, Robert?"

"There's room for one," replied the driver. "We kip it for you."

Not unlikely discomfited, the will made another shot.

"What's your face?" he asked.

The answer entirely extinguished him.

"Found and water-soak as you had before!" Pearson's Weekly.

The Great Circus.

The famous Coliseum in old Rome massive as it was, was a mere toy in comparison with the great circus which filled the valley between the Palatine and the Aventine hills. The Coliseum is said to have been able to seat 50,000 people, while the seating capacity of the great circus was, at different periods, 150,000, 385,000 and lastly, 485,000 spectators. The great circus was probably the most stupendous building ever erected for public spectacles.—Sun York American.

Ivy Lane Inn.

Pleasant evening at the hotel was an evening of song. The song birds were Mrs. Church, Mrs. Johnston and Miss Hall, and the theme of some of the songs filled with sweet harmony and the guests had an hour of pure enjoyment, to which their applause testified. Mrs. Johnston arranged a fine program of solos, duets and trios that was beautifully rendered by the three artists. Special mention might be made of the two duet selections from "The Red Mill," in which the voices of Mrs. Church and Mrs. Johnston blended with exquisite harmony. By request the latter sang the same selection.

The closing number, "Good Night, Beloved," also especially pleased. There was many a restless pleasure at the close of the concert.

Accepted.

"Spells has had a story accepted at last," remarked a journalist to a colleague.

"Surely not," was the rejoinder.

"Yes. He sent home at 2 o'clock this morning with an awful pain, and his wife believed it."

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

This is how a driver of the prison van known as Black Maria, distinguished himself. A would be wit on the causeway hailed him:

"Got any room fuside, Robert?"

Not entirely disconcerted, the wit made another shot.

"What's your fare?" he asked.

The answer entirely extinguished him.

The Great Circus.

The famous Coliseum in old Rome massive as it was, was a mere toy in comparison with the great circus, which filled the valley between the Palatine and the Aventine hills. The Coliseum is said to have been able to seat 80,000 people, while the seating capacity of the great circus was, at different periods, 150,000, 250,000 and, lastly, 380,000 spectators. The great circus was probably the most stupendous building ever erected for public spectacles.—New York American.

Tuesday evening at this hotel was an evening of song. The song birds were Mrs. Church Mrs. Bohannon and Miss Hallett, and so of course the air was filled with sweet harmony and the guests had an hour of pure enjoyment, to which their applause testified. Mrs. Bohannon arranged a fine program of solos, duets and trios that was beautifully rendered by the three artists. Special mention might be made of the two duet selections from "The Red Mill," in which the voices of Mrs. Church and Mrs. Bohannon blended with exquisite harmony. By request the encore to this number was a repetition.

The closing number, "Good Night, Beloved," also especially pleased. There were many expressions of pleasure at the close of the concert.

A Division of Purpose.

Some years ago the Tacker schooner Sally Ann, under command of Captain Spooner, was landing up the Canaan river. Mr. Comstock, the mate, was at the station forward. According to his notion of things the schooner was getting a "lurch" on herself certain mud flats which lay along the forward shore. So off he went to the outlets and, with his hat cocked on one side, said:

"Cap'n Spooner, you're getting a leetle too close to them flats. Hadn't you better go about?"

The captain glared at him.

"Mr. Comstock, just you go forward and tend to your part of the schooner. I'll tend to mine."

Mr. Comstock went forward in high dudgeon.

"Huph," he bellowed out, "see that there or mud hook's all ready for better go."

"Aye, aye, sir!"

"Let go, then!" he roared.

There went the anchor, out rattled the chains, and like a flash the Sally Ann came luffing into the wind and then brought up all standing. Mr. Comstock walked aft and touched his hat.

"Well, cap'n, my part of the schooner is anchored."—Everybody's.

How Should Brush Their Hair Worn.

"Very few men brush their hair enough, and a downtown barber once told me that he thought he owed his start to that fault. You see it's this way: A man is generally in a hurry when he dresses, and he never takes time to brush his hair enough. Most of it down, generally only with a comb—and so a small dandruff is allowed to accumulate and trouble begins. Now, with a woman it's different. She has to carefully brush her hair at least once a day. If she didn't it would be a pretty mess. It's very much worse for her dressing. I mean that she wears out all sorts of impurities, dandruff and the like, all of which is for her own good. Now, that is the chief reason why fewer women suffer from dandruff than the unfortunate members of the opposite sex, and it is also the reason why the latter is a woman's growing glory even if she is frail and fiery. So brush your hair every morning remember if you want to keep it the owner."—Philadelphia Record.

So Bad as That!

A young conceited fellow who was calling upon a girl condescended to chat and help entertain the composer which seemed unexpectedly. At the end of the second selection he turned to the young lady and remarked, "I am thinking of taking vocal lessons. Do you know of a good teacher?"

"Yes, indeed," was the quick reply. "I know the very one for you. Here is his address," and she scribbled the name on a card, giving it to the gentleman.

Next day he called up the teacher by telephone. "Is this the instructor of vocal music?"

"The what?" was the answer.

"The vocal teacher?" was repeated.

"You've come to right, I don't teach fighting. I do now!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Multiplicity of Fathers.

Anyone had been writing to any "Ananias" or school and was trying to say it to Brother Wiggs. One morning his father heard him shouting, "David where no papa died, and where no papa died."

Andrew interrupted. "Oh, no, Wiggs, not that way. It is 'Lord where our Father died!'"

Brother's expression could not be described as he tripped his head sideways and in a very satisfied tone gravely asked, "Two of 'em?"—Delineator.

How Mansfield Coached Margaret Anglin as Rosina.

Richard Mansfield in his preparation for "Cyrano" was suspering of himself, and he was suspering of others. Everything he had and everything he hoped for was at stake. Struggle and desperation were in the air. Nearly every one in the cast resigned or was discharged over and over again. Mr. Palmer's days and nights were devoted to diplomacy, and, thanks to his charity, the heady heat of the day before was forgotten in the cool of the next morning.

An actress of international reputation and experience was engaged for Rosina. Rehearsals were under way when she resigned by cable. The orange girl's single line in the first act was being rehearsed by a young Canadian, Margaret Anglin. Miss Anglin had not seen her act, but he recognized the wonderful loveliness of her voice, and his instinctive faith him her temperament. "Can you make yourself look beautiful enough for Rosina?" he asked. "I think I might if you can make yourself very excited for Cyrano," she answered. The part was born on the instant. He was tied her momentarily. Again and again she acted that she could not do it. He reassured her, but not with soft persuasion. "Tut, tut, my dear, and you must. Now, again." After rehearsals Miss Anglin went regularly to Mr. Palmer to weep. He appealed to Mansfield to be more patient. "I am only kind," was his reply.

Anglin is a great part. Only one who has suffered can play such a role. The girl has the temperament and the situations, but she is young and inexperienced. I cannot persuade her eyes to. I must tease it." And every day she reached new depths and new heights.—Paul Wilstach in Scribner's.

The Ancient Manufacture of Cutlery.

The ancient Syrians and Phoenicians were skilful workers in steel and its traders in copper and they manufactured this metal into tools by quilting it with tin. Herodotus relates that the Phoenicians actually came to England and to Ireland in search of tin for this purpose, and some years ago some curious stone articles were found in search of the old mine workings in Cornwall, which are believed to be the stone tools used by the Phoenicians in the days when tin was still a rare metal to Greece and Rome. Whether they came to England or not is disputed.—Chambers' Journal.

A Division of Purpose.

Some years ago the Yankee schooner Sally Ann, under command of Captain Spooner, was beating up the Connecticut river. Mr. Comstock, the mate, was at his station forward. According to his notion of things the schooner was getting a "leetle" too near certain mud flats which lay along the larboard shore. So aft he went to the captain and, with his hat cocked on one side, said:

"Cap'n Spooner, you're getting a leetle too close to them flats. Hadn't you better go abeout?"

The captain glared at him.

"Mr. Comstock, jest you go for'ard and tend to your part of the skuner. I'll tend to mine."

Mr. Comstock went for'ard in high dudgeon.

"Boys," he bellowed out, "see that that er mud book's all clear for lettin' go."

"Aye, aye, sir!"

"Let go, then!" he roared.

Down went the anchor, out rattled the chains, and like a flash the Sally Ann came luffing into the wind and then brought up all standing. Mr. Comstock walked aft and touched his hat.

"Well, cap'n, my part of the skuner is to anchor."—Everybody's.

Men Should Brush Their Hair More.

"Very few men brush their hair enough," said a downtown barber. "Fact. Most ills of the scalp can be traced to that fault. You see it's this way: A man is generally in a hurry when he dresses, and he never takes time to brush his hair—simply smooths it down, generally only with a comb—and as a result dandruff is allowed to accumulate and trouble begins. Now, with a woman it's different. A woman has to carefully brush her hair at least once a day. If she didn't it would be a pretty mess. It's very length saves her, for in brushing it each day she gets out all sorts of impurities, dandruff and the like, all of which is for her own good. Now, that is the chief reason why fewer women suffer from dandruff than the unfortunate members of the opposite sex, and it is also the reason why the hair is a woman's crowning glory even if she is fair, fat and forty. So brush your hair every morning thoroughly if you want to keep in the swim."—Philadelphia Record.

So Bad as That!

A young medical student who was calling upon a girl volunteered to sing and help entertain the company which arrived unexpectedly. At the end of his second solo he turned to the young lady and remarked: "I am thinking of taking vocal lessons. Do you know of a good teacher?"

"Yes, indeed," was the quick reply, "I know the very one for you. Here is his address," and she scribbled the name on a card, giving it to the student.

Next day he called up the teacher by telephone: "Is this the instructor of vocal music?"

"The what?" was the answer.

"The vocal teacher?" was repeated.

"Naw," came the reply, "I don't teach nothing. I file saws!"—Ladies' Home Journal.

A Multiplicity of Fathers.

Ardyce had been learning to sing "America" at school and was trying to teach it to Brother Wayne. One morning his father heard him shouting, "Land where my papa died, land where my papa died."

Ardyce interrupted. "Oh, no, Wayne, not that way. It is 'Land where our fathers died.'"

Wayne's expression could not be described as he tipped his head sidewise and in a very surprised tone gravely asked, "Two of 'em?"—Delineator.

How Mansfield Coached Margaret Anglin as Roxane.

Richard Mansfield in his preparation for "Cyrano" was unsparing of himself, and he was unsparing of others. Everything he had and everything he hoped for was at stake. Struggle and desperation were in the air. Nearly every one in the cast resigned or was discharged over and over again. Mr. Palmer's days and nights were devoted to diplomacy, and, thanks to his suavity, the heady heat of the day before was forgotten in the cool of the next morning.

An actress of international reputation and experience was engaged for Roxane. Rehearsals were under way when she resigned by cable. The orange girl's single line in the first act was being rehearsed by a young Canadian, Margaret Anglin. Mansfield had not seen her act, but he remarked the wondrous loveliness of her voice, and his intuition told him she had temperament. "Can you make yourself look beautiful enough for Roxane?" he asked. "I think I might if you can make yourself ugly enough for Cyrano," she answered. The part was hers on the instant. He coached her relentlessly. Again and again she cried that she could not do it. He reassured her, but not with soft persuasions. "You can, my dear, and you must. Now, again!" After rehearsals she went regularly in tears to Mr. Palmer to resign. He appealed to Mansfield to be more lenient. "I am only kind," was his reply.

"Roxane is a great part. Only one who has suffered can play such a role. This girl has the temperament and the emotions, but she is young and inexperienced. I cannot persuade her spirit. I must rouse it." And every day she reached new depths and new heights.—Paul Wilstach in Scribner's.

The Ancient Manufacture of Copper.

The ancient Syrians and Phoenicians are well known to have been active traders in copper, and they manufactured this metal into bronze by melting it with tin. Learned antiquaries assure us that the Phoenicians actually came to England and to Ireland in search of tin for this purpose, and some years ago some curious bronze articles were found in several of the old mine workings in Cornwall, which are believed to have been left there by that ancient people at a time when no bronze was either made or used in England.—Chambers' Journal.
